AMERICAN ARRESTED IN HAVANA

By HAROLD K. MILKS

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime today arrested but later released a British newsman. Still held was reporter James Buchanan of the Miami Herald, seized on charges that he was aiding Frank Austin Young, an American sentenced by a Castro military court.

The British correspondent is Ian Aitken, representing Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers. He was seized after returning from an investigation of Young's escape from jail in Pinar del Rio.

On his release, Aitken said he had been asked if he knew a man named Buckman. His questioners apparently were referring to the Miami reporter.

Agents who arrested Buchanan said he was entering the hotel room in which they recaptured Young Thursday.

A U.S. Embassy representative said he understood officials planned to take Buchanan before

Electric Lights Gift for Lepers On Leeward Isles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The age of the electric light dawned this week for members of a leper colony in the Leeward Islands. It was a Christmas gift from men of the U. S. Navy.

Nine officers and enlisted men stationed on Antigua Island, south of the Virgin Islands, completed more than three months off-duty work Tuesday to provide the leper colony with an electrical system serving its 33 buildings.

The colony heretofore has been lighted by kerosene lamps. When Lt. Cmdr. T. G. Miskill of Greensburg, Pa., commanding officer of the Naval facility on the island, asked the inmates what they wished for most of all they voted unanimously for electricity.

The Navy said today the men raised $390 through a benefit dance, won a $150 prize for the best float in a carnival parade, received a $339 donation from the 10th Naval District chairty fund in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and accepted further donations from Americans who have homes in Antigua.

The money just about paid for a generator, wiring, fuel tank, switchboard, street light, telephone poles and lighting fixtures for the 33 buildings.

Matter of Hours For Civil War Veteran

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — "It looks like a matter of hours instead of days," a doctor said today after checking the condition of Walter W. Williams, 117, last surviving veteran of the Civil War.

"It may be only 48 hours," the doctor said. "Respiration is shallow, pulse irregular. He is very weak. He tries to speak but is incoherent."

Williams, who celebrated his birthday Nov. 14, has been under an oxygen tent since Sunday. He has failed to respond to treatment for his fourth pneumonia attack since June.

Director of A. A. Witness In Warren Co. Court Case

Burglarly of two jackets from a car parked in a home driveway near Tidioute unfolded in Warren County court this morning the personal history of an admitted alcoholic. The man is from Sharon and he claimed he did not recall any of the acts against society because of his addiction.

State police testimony showed that John Mike Dohollow, about 40, employed in a Sharon factory, took the jackets early on the morning of Oct. 9. They were in a car owned by Bruce E. Ziegler, Tidioute RD 1. Testimony by Cpl. Joseph J. Mastrian said Dohollow was traced to Sharon by his license plate after Ziegler followed his car and noted the number.

Subsequent questioning by the corporal disclosed Dohollow is an admitted alcoholic. The director of Alcoholics Anonymous in Sharon, Homer Barbian, took the witness stand in Dohollow's defense, asking that the Sharon man be placed on probation.

Questioning of Cpl. Mastrian by District Attorney Samuel F. Bonavita brought out that Dohollow had a long list of arrests dating back to 1936. They included charges of violation of the Selective Service Act, auto theft, burglary, aggravated assault and other charges. Dohollow said he served in the armed forces from 1943 to 1945 and was honorably discharged.

After listening to a plea from Barbian, Judge Alexander C. Flick Jr. placed the Sharon man on probation in charge of the AA director and Sheriff L. E. Linder. Dohollow was ordered not to enter Warren County again unless on business. Judge Flick said the public has a right to protection against persons like the defendant.

Dohollow admitted he had beaten his wife, tried to choke a neighbor and that on various occasions he had found himself in Pittsburgh and Youngstown, Ohio, and did not know how he got to those places because he had been drinking.

Barbian told the court Dohollow was under doctor's care, that he was taking pills which "will make it physically impossible to drink." He said Dohollow had been to the Sharon unit of AA for help and that "the man on the street does not understand that alcoholism is like a disease."

Dohollow's police record was largely from a number of Pennsylvania towns. He denied he had violated the Selective Service Act. Barbian said he would not have appeared on behalf of Dohollow if he considered any of his previous law violations were anti-social. He said Dohollow did not know he had committed them until later. He had been arrested twice in Warren Court for disorderly conduct and reckless driving.

Judge Flick suggested the defendant should spend the Christmas-New Year holiday in jail to curb any urge to drink but the AA director said he was convinced he would abstain. Judge Flick, in

Pennsylvania Singing Boys In Two Christmas Concerts

Pennsylvania's Singing Boys, formerly Warren Boy Choir and still comprised entirely of talent from Warren and its surrounding area, will be making their first public appearance of the 1959-60 concert season Sunday afternoon.

The occasion will be the annual Christmas Carol Concert with which this group has long entertained its friends as a highlight of the holiday season.

Scheduled again this year in Grace Methodist Church, there will be two concerts to accommodate what is always an overflow audience. Directed by Byron L. Swanson and accompanied at the organ by Richard A. Pratt, the programs will be heard at 4 and 7:30 p. m.

Joining with the Singing Boys in this carol presentation will be three other groups, Second Boy Choir, Little Boys' Choir, and the Warren Girl Choir, making more than 100 youthful voices in all.

Opening the program will be an organ prelude, Mr. Pratt playing Chimes by D'Aquin and Christmas Suite by Huybrechts.

Combined choirs will be heard in the processional, O Come All Ye Faithful. The Rev. Ralph S. Findley, pastor of Grace Church, will read the Christmas Story from scripture and lead the recital of The Lord's Prayer.

Northern Area Research Study To Be Continued

Northern Area Joint School Board authorized continuation of a research study on a proposal for a popular vote in 1960 on merging all Northern Area districts into a complete union. The action was taken at the board's annual reorganization meeting Wednesday.

Alden Abbott was re-elected board president for one year, Francis Lewis vice-president for one year, Mrs. Hazel Kays secretary for four years. Attending their first joint board meeting from member school boards were: Paul Stanton, Farmington Township, Clarence Jones, Pine Grove Township and Harold Pink, Sugar Grove school board.

The board was informed its application for supplemental reimbursement payments from the state meets substantially all criteria. A letter from Dr. Ralph C. Swan, deputy superintendent of the Department of Education said reimbursement payments will be forthcoming during the 1960-61 school year.

Dr. Swan's letter commented the hope the school system will be able to maintain and improve educational offerings from year to year.

A report to the board said school districts can anticipate a reduction in building insurance rates amounting to 25 per cent in the case of fire-resistive and ten per cent in non-fire-resistive buildings.

The vote in 1960, if favorable to merging the participating school districts, would form them into one union rather than a jointure.

Youths Sought in Erie Stabbing Held in South

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Herbert Johnson Jr. of Erie County said today he will seek extradition from Florida of two youths wanted in the stabbing of a service station attendant.

Donald Parmenter, 17, and Thomas Strike, 19, both of Erie, were arrested Wednesday in Jacksonville, Fla. They are accused of attempting to hold up an Erie service station Sunday night. Robert Dunlap, 49, the attendant, was stabbed. He is recovering at St. Vincent Hospital.

Steel Labor Discussions Sidetracked

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Steel labor talks have been sidetracked temporarily to let union negotiators try for an aluminum industry agreement. A contract there could influence the steel situation.

The government called off Thursday the steel talks it has been sponsoring. Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the bargaining wasn't making any progress despite stepped-up efforts after President Eisenhower's latest appeal.

No time was fixed for their resumption. Asked whether it would be a matter of days or weeks, Finnegan replied "it won't be a matter of weeks, I'm sure."

Finnegan noted the Steelworkers Union recently concluded a labor peace pact with major can manufacturers, and are negotiating with the top aluminum producers — Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser.

The aluminum talks have just resumed in Chicago, ahead of a Jan. 1 strike deadline. David J. McDonald, Steelworkers Union president, had planned to join the aluminum talks even if steel negotiations had continued.

"There is no point holding steel meetings without the key people," Finnegan told newsmen.

"It is to be hoped that when we resume our mediation sessions in the steel dispute, a settlement area will emerge which will make it easier for the parties to reconcile their present differences."

However, the steel talks were called off exactly one week after Eisenhower called for round-the-clock steel bargaining.

Officials obviously were hopeful for an aluminum settlement. McDonald's union represents about 33,000 workers employed by the big three aluminum producers. An agreement in aluminum following the can settlement probably would increase pressure for settlement of the steel dispute.

Optimism for an aluminum contract is based in part on the fact that the West Coast Kaiser interests have already reached agreement with the union for steel operations, and may point the way to a peaceful solution in aluminum.

There were reports however that Alcoa, largest of the aluminum producers, wants to try to become that industry's labor contract pacemaker rather than allow Kaiser to lead.

Gov. Lawrence Vetoes Pay Boosts for Judges

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pay raises for county and municipal judges in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties have been vetoed by Gov. Lawrence.

"I know of no reason for selecting these judges for such preferential consideration and discriminating against other members of the judiciary," Lawrence said in rejecting the proposal Thursday.

The measure would have increased the salaries of 14 Philadelphia municipal judges and 7 Allegheny County judges to $22,500 a year.

They now receive $18,000 annually while the president judges get $18,500.

Fugitive Convict Nabbed When Car Flips on a Curve

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP)—Charles W. (Yank) Stewart, 52, described as the ringleader of Tuesday's escape of 20 men from North Carolina's Ivy Bluff Prison, was captured here early today after a high speed chase that resulted from a police officer's hunch.

The Wilmington, N.C., convict was nabbed when the car he was driving failed to make a curve at the north end of the Smith River bridge and flipped about 30 feet to the edge of the river.

Stewart's arrest left at large only six of the ecapees. Two of them believed to have been with Stewart as late as Thursday are being sought in the Lynchburg-Roanoke, Va. area.

Before Stewart was caught, eight others had been taken into custody in Virginia, four in Ohio and one near the prison shortly after the mass break. None offered any resistance.

Judge Is Plastered When Ceiling Falls

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The ceiling fell in on city court Thursday — really.

And Judge W. H. Gilmartin got plastered—actually.

He was treated for cuts on his head and hands, but they weren't serious enough to damage the judge's humor.

"Well, I guess someone didn't like the way I fined them," said the judge.

Annual Sessions Are Approved By Small Majority

HARRISBURG (AP) — Official figures disclosed today voters approved annual sessions of the State Legislature by less than 64,000 votes—the closest margin on any statewide issue in the Nov. 3 election.

The State Elections Bureau released the official vote for statewide contests for the supreme and superior courts and on three proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The vote on the annual sessions amendment was: Yes — 632,422; no — 568,800. Another amendment approved will allow voters who move away within 60 days before an election to cast a ballot at their old polling place. The vote: yes—756,138; no—292,019.

A defeated amendment would have authorized school districts to increase the ceiling on their present borrowing limits. Voters turned it down by a vote of yes—513,987; no—719,923.

Judge Michael J. Eagen, of Lackawanna County, Democrat, defeated Judge Blair F. Gunther, of the State Superior Court, 1,800,487 to 1,671,321, in the Supreme Court contest.

In the balloting for a State Superior Court post, Judge Harry Montgomery of Allegheny County, Democrat, defeated, Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House Republican floor leader, 1,823,409 to 1,611,908.

Billboard Control Bill Opposed by Farmers

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposed billboard control law has been opposed by the State Council of Farm Organizations.

The council, representing some 40 farm groups, adopted a resolution Thursday noting many landowners receive significant income from billboards.

A house-passed proposal to prohibit billboard advertising within 660 feet of federal interstate system roads in Pennsylvania has received Senate Highways Committee approval. It is in position for final Senate approval next week.

Another resolution adopted by the council favored the abolition of the General State Authority, the state's borrow-to-build agency.

Hawaiian Crater Is Splashing Lava Again

HILO, Hawaii (AP) — Kilauea Iki crater started splashing lava again Thursday night in its eighth eruption since Nov. 14.

"It's oozing out pretty slowly this time and splashing up about 25 or 30 feet," said Dr. Jerry Eaton, geophysicist.

In earlier eruptions of the volcano's present activity lava fountains have spouted as high as 1,600 feet.

PRESIDENT CONTINUES TO BE CENTER OF WORSHIPFUL MASSES ON TOUR OF INDIA

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

NEW DELHI (AP) — President Eisenhower today called upon all nations to wage together a "genuinely noble war" against hunger and famine, the scourges of India and much of this part of the world.

The President, making three speeches in the course of a busy day, continued to be the center of almost worshipful masses of people.

"Men right now possess knowledge and resources for a successful worldwide war against hunger —the sort of war that dignifies and exalts human beings," he declared in opening the dramatic American pavilion at New Delhi's World Agricultural Fair.

In two earlier speeches he:

1. Called for an expansion of the universal recognition of world law as a sound basis of peace.

2. Declared summit conferences of the big powers have less enduring influence for peace than exchanges of students and people-to-people contacts.

A surging, colorful crowd of 10,000 Indians jammed the enclosed field at the fair to hear the President term India a mighty influence for world peace and pledge American help toward solving this nation's critical food shortages.

Crowds numbering hundreds of thousands lined the route to the fair grounds, cheering Eisenhower as he passed by with Indian President Rajendra Prasad in an open horse-drawn coach under a red and gold umbrella.

As the ceremonies ended, the sun was sinking and colored lights playing on the stand gave a brilliant glow to Indian dancers in ornate costumes performing before the President.

Eisenhower was praised by Prime Minister Nehru as a great man and a great president.

"You have found yourself in the hearts of my millions," Nehru declared.

Eisenhower said India and the United States are working together to solve India's food problem.

"Whatever strengthens India strengthens us, a sister republic dedicated to peace," he said.

Eisenhower cited the "Four-F" theme of the American exhibit at the 14-nation fair — food, family, friendship and freedom.

"Into these four words are compressed the daily needs, high purposes, deep feelings and ageless

Dispute With Red China Discussed

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said tonight he and President Eisenhower have discussed India's dispute with Communist China.

"Well we have discussed that broadly but in no great detail."

Atlantic Alliance Ends Annual Review

PARIS (AP)—The highest military officers of the North Atlantic alliance have concluded that the present trend of Allied military policies will lead to dangerous weakness unless checked immediately.

Authoritative sources said this was the conclusion of the military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), which ended its annual review Thursday.

In the meeting, the chairman of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff, Gen. Nathan Twining, dropped a diplomatic bombshell by placing his finger squarely on France as the major offender. By implication he charged that French President Charles de Gaulle is the man responsible.

Decline In Employment Over Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment declined by over a million in November to 65,640,000. Unemployment rose nearly 400,000 to 3,670,000.

The employment decline was somewhat greater than seasonal, but still represented a record number of Americans in jobs for the month of November.

The rise in unemployment was only a bit more than half of what was seasonally expected.

Even so, it was the second highest idle total for a November since before World War II. The postwar record for November is the 3,833,000 unemployed in 1958.

In making public the job report today, Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, said that if only seasonal economic influences occur between now and early next year, unemployment will probably rise to about 4¾ million in January or February.

This would be about half a million to one million less than the unemployment figures for January and February in the recession year of 1958.

The November job data was collected only a few days after the steel strike was ended in early November by a Taft-hartley law injunction.

The figures reflected a sizable return of steelworkers to their jobs, but a considerable dent in the employment total because of over 600,000 layoffs due to steel shortages.

FORGER SENTENCED

SMETHPORT, Pa. (AP)—Charles Thompson, 37, of Butler, was sentenced to from 5-10 months in McKean County Jail Thursday on charges of passing forged checks in Kane.

McKean County Dist. Atty. Glen Mencer said several other Pennsylvania Counties have filed detainers against Thompson.

Buses Bypassing Area Towns Due to Tionesta Span Limit

Tidioute and Tionesta are without public bus service, and will be until the new bridge, now in the planning stage, is completed across the Allegheny River in Tionesta.

A recent enforcement of the new weight limit of eight tons has forced the Greyhound Lines, along with other bus and truck firms, to re-route their vehicles.

The reduction in the weight limit from 13 to eight tons was first establised last August. Recently the new limit was enforced on orders from the State Highway Department, according to state police at the Tionesta substation.

Last Monday the Greyhound bus, out of Buffalo, came into Warren with the notification that they were immediately being rerouted between Warren and Oil City, said C. W. Johnson, Greyhound Lines agent in Warren.

Instead of traveling south on Route 62, the buses now are being re-routed from Warren via of Youngsville, Pittsfield, Garland, Grand Valley, Pleasantville, Rouseville and Oil City. Average weight of a Greyhound bus is approximately 20 tons, said Johnson.

Several school buses also are stopping at the bridge approach, and pupils are walking across the bridge while the bus goes over empty, said the state police.

A reliable source told the Times-Mirror yesterday that bids on the new bridge are expected soon. The span, which will be located approximately 100 yards north of the present bridge, will cost an estimated four to five million dollars.

The present bridge, carrying Route 62 traffic across the river, was last repaired in 1905. It has been weakened considerably by wear and accidents.

Romance at "A Summer Place," Warner Bros. Technicolor production due at the Library Theatre, is depicted above by Sandra Dee, Troy Donahue, Richard Egan, Constance Ford, Dorothy McGuire and Arthur Kennedy. Film, based on Sloan Wilson's best-selling novel, was written, produced and directed by Delmer Daves.

Last Call To Mail Early

Warren Postmaster B. S. Knabenshue, like all others across the nation, has sounded the last call to "mail early." But he said:

"You can still help us to avoid a tremendous last minute pile-up of Christmas mail if you'll send all your gift packages and Christmas cards right now!"

The postmaster suggested to last minute mailers that they use air mail for Christmas cards and gifts destined for distant places. There are 13 days left until Christmas.

Postal authorities expect the 1959 Christmas mails to break all records and will hit a peak in the next few days.

The Warren post office will be open extra hours in the evening from 7 to 8:30 p. m. The Drive-In Annex will be open next week, including Saturday, from 9 a. m. to noon and 1 to 5 p. m. It will be open tomorrow.

Postmaster Knabenshue expressed his thanks to the public for cooperation.

Fifty years ago people believed nothing could be done about tuberculosis. The annual Christmas Seal campaign brought hope and health to millions

Pittsburgh Business Reported Near Record

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Bureau of Business Research at the University of Pittsburgh has reported a record level of business in the Pittsburgh district for last week.

The bureau said Thursday its business activity index rose to 121.6 compared with 67.9 a month ago and 98.9 for the same week in 1958. According to the bureau, steel mills operated at 54 percent capacity last week.

Boom Under Way In Leasing Alaskan Lands

WASHINGTON (AP)—A boom is underway in the leasing of Alaska public land for oil and gas development.

Oil and gas leases on only 19,000 acres were recorded with the Interior Dept. 10 years ago. On June 30, 1958, the figure had climbed to 19,500,000. It reached 32,100,000 last June 30.

A sharp increase in the Alaska leasing was noted by officials of the Interior Dept's Bureau of land Management after a July 1957 oil strike on the Kenai Peninsula. At least four wells now are producing on the Peninsula. More are being drilled.

Over Half Million Drop in Employment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment dropped by over a million in November. Unemployment rose by over a half million.

That was the advance word on what a government job report due today will show about the November job situation.

The November survey was taken only a few days after the half million steel strikers went back to work under an 80-day court injunction. Much of the unemployment caused by the strike still was going on.

Employment in October was recorded at 66,831,000 and unemployment at 3,272,000. In November the employment total reportedly sagged to about 65,600,000 while the jobless total rose to about 3,700,000.

Boyle's Column

By FRANCIS STILLEY
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — My good wife would like to say a word or two.

She wants to talk about a little subject which often bothers parents.

Meet Joy. Says she:

For those parents who fret and stew because their childen refuse to eat, I have just one word of advice. Wait.

It seems like only yesterday we had that problem in our household. Every bite our son got down was the day's big achievement.

Frantically, we consulted pediatricians, neighbors, friends and psychiatrists. Our son's puny appetite was the chief topic at our house.

Now we're having to eat our own words.

As a matter of fact, that is just about all we do get to eat these days. Everything else in the refrigerator, freezer and pantry goes into the bottomless stomach of Brenn, 14.

No longer is it a problem of getting him to eat. It's how to finance his appetite.

From the four bowls of cereal in the morning—while I'm fixing his breakfast—to his final bedtime snack at night he methodically munches his way through the day.

On school days there is a slight letup for a few hours. That, fortunately, gives me time to run to the grocery for fresh loads of eatables. But during the weekends he lives a true hand-to-mouth existence.

Between meals he commutes from his room to the kitchen for apples, bread and butter, pretzels, bananas, peanuts, ice cream bars, cheese and anything else loose.

Brenn is studying, and practicing, nutrition in a high school science class. For homework he had to list everything he ate during a day and compare this with a guide listing the seven basic foods.

It required a considerable feat of memory for the two of us to tote up his own score. Finally it was completed. Brenn compared figures a moment and exclaimed:

"Hey, mom, you know what? I don't eat as much as I'm supposed to!"

Top Mercer Farmer Former Resident Here

Donald M. Unangst, a former Warren resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Unangst, 113 Irvine St., was named Mercer area's outstanding young farmer of the year and presented a plaque at a recent banquet in his honor, held in the Mercer Moose Home.

The event was the climax of a three-week search by Mercer Area Junior Chamber of Commerce for a young farmer to represent the area in state wide competition leading toward the national "outstanding farmer" awards competition next April 15.

Since 1951, when Mr. Unangst, aged 22, purchased his 175-acre dairy farm in Delaware Township, he has increased his herd size from 16 to 32 milking Holsteins, has cut his fed costs in half by growing more hay and less corn, and has doubled his net worth. Other improvements include a completely modernized barn, a new milk house, installation of a bulk-milk tank and construction of a new silo, along with many other accomplishments.

He is currently presid . of the county branch of Pennsylvania Farmers Assoc., was formerly secretary and now an active member of Mercer County Holstein Breeders Assoc., chairman of his local committee of Cub Scouts, and is an elder and treasurer of Jerusalem Reformed Church, where he also teaches a Sunday School class.

Following graduation from Warren High School in 1945, Mr. Unangst served in the army after which he took a two year course in agriculture at Pennsylvania State University. His family consists of his wife, Lois, two sons, Larry, 9 and Gary, 7; also a daughter, Bebra, aged 3.

Dear Abby . . . The Count Was High!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I was extremely amused at the letter signed "A DOCTOR, SEVENTY PLUS" because I knew one of those old coots who married a beautiful young woman who was thirty years younger than he was. They were very happy for about six years. Then she became a widow.

She didn't cry too hard because she inherited enough money to get someone her own age to marry her. So you see, Abby, it sometimes pays to carefully count a man's years.

LOIS

DEAR LOIS: The lady in this case probably "carefully counted" the man's money—not his years.

* * * *

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of ours just came back from a mental institution. She had a nervous breakdown and was gone almost three years. How do we act towards her? Should we pretend as though we don't know where she was? Should we give her a welcome home party, or should we wait until she shows more interest in us? She was always a nice quiet lady. Her children (4 and 7) were kept by her sister, but are home with her now. I suppose this means that she is normal again. Can you advise us? We want to do the right thing.

NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: Most people who have been stricken with a mental illness were normal, human beings before their illness, and most of them return to normalcy after treatment. No mention of "where she was" is necessary. But she knows that you are aware of her three-year absence, so don't treat her as though she were a child. Call on her and tell her the neighbors want to welcome her home with a little party, and let her name the day.

* * * *

DEAR ABBY: Our 15-year-old daughter is a very nice girl. We raised her right and I don't like to boast, but she is very pretty and is getting extremely popular. Our proolem is: She wants us to put in a long telephone cord so she can carry the telephone all over the house and talk privately in her bedroom.

He father said it was too expensive (this wasn't the real reason) and I told her if she had anything to say that her family couldn't hear, she should be ashamed of herself.

We have been going around about this for several months and I am interested in a solution. Our daughter has some birthday money saved and says she will pay for it herself. Should we agree?

PERPLEXED PARENTS

DEAR PERPLEXED: Teen-agers are people. All people are entitled to privacy. (Don't assume that just because she wants to talk confidentially to her friends that she has something to be ashamed of".) If your daughter shows consideration and respect for her family, this would be a fitting reward for her. Give her the long cord.

TOO MANY "WOLF CALLS"

The following editorial tidbit from the Franklin News-Herald will be read with interest by the many friends of Harold Clark in the Warren area:

"Harold R. Clark, Venango County's hard working Civilian Defense coordinator, stood fast this week in his refusal to obey a rather pointless state Civilian Defense edict to "sound sirens and do nothing" in a nationwide air raid alert. We commend Mr. Clark for his courage and common sense in realizing too many "wolf calls" may someday result in just the type of disaster the CD organization has been formed to prevent."

REMINDER ABOUT STORE HOURS

With but 12 more shopping days remaining before Christmas it would seen that this is an appropriate time to remind readers about the schedule for store hours.

The usual Friday evening hours will be observed tonight. Beginning Monday retailers will remain open each evening until 9 o'clock up to and including Wednesday, December 23. On December 24, in accordance with a custom established some years ago, they will close at 5 p. m. The opening hour on Monday, December 14 will be 12 o'clock noon; beginning December 15, through the 24th they will open at 9:30 a. m.

It definitely is far too late to start your Christmas shopping early. There is a big advantage, however, in doing it early in the day.

COLORFUL TRIP

Color predominates in descriptions of the Eisenhower tour—the orange and silver of the presidential plane—a Victorian carriage manned by scarlet-clad footmen, in which the President rode through record throngs in Karachi, Pakistan—the color of the multihued displays along his routes. Most colorful of all, perhaps, is the glow from the warmth of his reception, a beacon of friendship for the free world.

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's White House years, drawing toward a close, have introduced a new kind of politics in 20th century America: The technique of the soft word.

Whether or not you like or admire him, this is a fact: He went into office a highly popular war hero and has remained not only extremely popular but amazingly free of personal criticism.

We are now looking for a good example.

The four Democratic senators being mentioned as presidential possibilities — John F. Kennedy, Hubert H. Humphrey, Stuart W. Symington, and Lyndon B. Johnson—are talking critically of the Eisenhower administration.

They even take oblique cracks at Eisenhower by saying what this country needs is leadership. But all of them are avoiding criticism of Eisenhower personally and by name.

He has remained so popular they might find it unpopular for themselves to do otherwise.

The President's present trip abroad is another illustration:

Everywhere he goes he is wildly welcomed since, no matter how Europeans and Asians may feel about the United States, their image of Eisenhower is that of a friendly, well-intentioned man.

It may be argued, since America has been so generous with aid to them and remains their chief protection against communism, that in welcoming Eisenhower they are in effect saying hello to Santa Claus.

But then you have to remember the Soviets always speak well of him, too. This becomes understandable in terms of Eisenhower himself when you look back over the record of what he has said since becoming President.

You almost never find him talking in terms which could be considered provocative or belligerent or hostile. Instead, he has emphasized patience and restraint even when talking firmly.

In addition, he has carefully avoided personal attacks on others, thus depriving them of any excuse for attacking him personally.

All this is in contrast to the attitude of many people, at home and abroad, toward, say, former presidents Truman and Roosevelt who were often up to their necks in fights.

It might be argued here that if Eisenhower had been as willing as Truman and Roosevelt to initiate new and controversial programs, and fight as they did for them, he'd be hit with brickbats, too.

But their temperaments were different from Eisenhower's. Both were more belligerent and both were more aggressive toward others, especially in showing irritation toward opponents.

Eisenhower, for instance, had plenty of excuse for hitting back at the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy but avoided it. He could have lashed out, but didn't, at Premier Nikita Khrushchev for some of the difficulties the Soviet created.

Whether or not all this adds up to the best kind of leadership is another, and long, discussion in itself. But certainly Eisenhower has been popular and free from abuse.

This soft-word technique of Eisenhower may have a moderating effect on his White House successor if only because it has proved politically so successful for Eisenhower, if this much is granted.

That a successful politician is one who, through retaining high popularity, can get himself reelected. By that definition, no one can argue Eisenhower has not been successful.

Some critics may argue that the key to Eisenhower's popularity is the result of his letting his lieutenants carry the load so that, if there is blame, it will be directed at them and not at him.

This doesn't hold water: Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles were beaten over the head for years for their policies. But Eisenhower didn't hide behind them. Instead, he supported them fully all the way.

That argument is fallacious for another reason: Truman and Roosevelt lieutenants—like Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes—were bespattered for years.

But so were Truman and Roosevelt.

Population Explosion

Here and There

Mention of plans for the annual Christmas kiddies party sponsored by the Warren Lodge of Moose, Warren Lodge of Elks, Library theatre and the Warren Times-Mirror, to be held Saturday morning, December 19, at 10:30, at the theatre reminds that one of Santa's most famous helpers in the area this season is missing from the local scene, in the person of Herb Onions, who passed away in Florida during the past year. About fifty years ago Onions came to Warren as manager of the Gisholt Machine Co., in the plant now occupied by the DeLuxe Metal Furniture Co., and soon after his arrivial started as Santa's helper for the Warren Lodge of Elks. It was not long however, before he was very much in demand to assist at other organizations and private parties. He carried on each holiday season until his retirement some years ago. For many years the parties were sponsored and held in the Elk home at the corner of Hickory street and Fourth avenue, but more recently it has been a joint affair with the Elks, Moose, Theatre and Newspaper entertaining the jolly old gent on his annual visit.

On the subject of the Elks Lodge there's an item in the "Daily Reflections" column of The Evening Mirror of December 11,1909, (fifty years ago) should be of interest to present-day readers. It says: "Bids have been opened for the erection of the handsome home of the Elks, to be erected at the corner of Fourth and Hickory, and the contract will be awarded in a few days. The lowest bidder was C. W. Ubdey, whose price is $26,000. The necessary funds will be provided for early next spring. The Elks hope to occupy the new home next fall. The building will be of brick and two stories in heigh It will be an ornament to the city architecturally and will be a pride to members of Warren Lodge No. 223, whose membership is composed of Warren's representative men." x x x Another item from the column about construction work says: "The interior work on the building at the corner of Liberty street and Pennsylvania avenue is being pushed forward rapidly. The building alone is a great improvement to the corner, but the appearance of the street would be greatly unproved by a sidewalk on the Liberty street side joining the building, and the straightening of the bridge across the mill race." x x x Old-timers in the Youngsville area will be interested in this item: "The Youngsville Enterprise contains an account of a benefit ball which was given in that place for Charles Batson, the unfortunate young man from Sugar Grove, who was injured while playing football in Youngsville Thanksgiving Day. Nearly $80 was turned over to Batson. The young man has recovered sufficiently from his injuries to be able to be on the street." x x x Another item reminds that "it is not often that the ice on the Conewango and Allegheny river is solid enough to allow the boys to skate from shore to shore, but today they are skating across both streams in several places."

The Associated Press is taking a survey of members to determine the ten best stories of the year in Pennsylvania: If the reader had an opportunity to participate it would be interesting to know just what the selections would be. To refresh your memory, here's some of the major stories: Pittston mine disaster; Meadville floods; State Sales Tax; Coyle Brothers shoot policeman; Steel strike; Blue Laws Sunday Sales; Montoursville plane crash; battle of budget at State Capital; November election; poisoned fish scare; Schuylkill Haven explosion; Mantonie kills self and two grandchildren after hacking wife with ax in hospital; widow kills five children in Allentown; berserk gunman kills two and wounds five at home for aged in Philadelphia. By the way, what's your choice?

Suds Fun at the Press Conference; Had Too Much of a Good Thing

BY JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Before leaving government service to return to the soap business, Defense Secretary Neil McElroy held a final press conference. It came to an hilarious close when news photographer Stan Tretick said:

"Mr. Secretary, for the last several weeks you have talked a lot about military deterrents. Now, would it be correct to say that you're switching from deterrents to detergents?"

McElroy agreed.

NO SOONER had the year's first cold wave struck than Miss Ice Cream of 1959 came to town and held a press conference. She is Eleanor Moses, a gorgeous, 22-year-old Athabaskan Indian from Alaska. During the last month, she has been touring the country promoting ice cream.

At her press conference she spoon-fed the dessert to Maryland Gov. J. Millard Tawes and Alaska Sen. Bob Bartlett. Afterwards at a luncheon in her honor, each guest was served a heaping dish of chocolate ice cream for dessert. Eleanor tasted a spoonful, turned to a woman seated beside her and confided:

"I have had so much ice cream lately that, frankly, I can't stand it any more."

OUTGOING Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs Robert Murphy explains the timidity he felt when addressing a recent National Press Club luncheon reminded him of one of British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's favorite stories.

It concerns an episode in the early life of Sir William Gilbert of the famed Gilbert and Sullivan songwriting team.

Gilbert was returning home on the train after spending a day at the races. He was dressed in a loud checked suit, flashy necktie, spats and a grey felt hat. Opening the door to his compartment, he came face-to-face with four severely dressed, stern-looking Anglican clergymen.

Gilbert gasped and blurted out, "My goodness, here am I, a lion in a den of Daniels."

FREELOADERS voted Chemetron Gas executives as the week's most thoughtful hosts at a reception held to show off the latest oxygen resuscitators. These are machines used in giving artificial respiration.

After several reporters had finished watching a resuscitator demonstration, a salesman said, "Come back if you get too much to drink. One shot of oxygen from this thing will sober you up in no time."

HERE'S HOW members of the U.S. Space Force will salute, according to a notice on a Pentagon bulletin board:

"The Space Force salute will begin with the open palm faced outward at waist level and brought upward with increasing acceleration so that it snaps crisply and smartly at arm's length above the head."

A NOVELTY DRINK that's becoming popular among partygoers is the "Australian Shandy." It's a half-and-half mixture of beer and lemonade. In Australia, the concoction is usually consumed by girls who are too young to swig hard liquor. It's also popular among nondrinkers who still want to be sociable.

Upon hearing that Shandies were being mixed here, Elizabeth Burrows, an Australian secretary for the Malayan Embassy, declared:

"It's a dreadful drink. It tastes vile. It shouldn't happen to the American public."

Hollywood News

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What's this? Roy Rogers blacklisted by the film studios?

"I think maybe that's what happened," said the cowboy star in an amazing burst of frankness. "That's the only way I can explain why I haven't had a real offer to do a movie in eight years.

"Oh, we've had deals come up and we'd talk to people at the studios about them. But as soon as the negotiations got to the top men in the studios, the deals were suddenly dropped. I believe the producers blackballed me. Why? Beause I had the nerve to fight Yates for four and a half years."

Roy referred to his historic battle with Herbert Yates, his longtime boss at Republic Studios. Yates controlled 86 of Roy's feature pictures and aimed to sell them to TV. The cowpoke sued to restrain him, arguing that actors had a right to share in the profits.

"I won the case all right, but then the Supreme Court reversed the decision." Roy remarked. "It cost me $100,000 in lawyer fees, and I didn't get any help from the other actors. The Screen Actors Guild wouldn't go to bat because it was worried about all the actors who were under contract to studios then.

"Well, I lost, and old movies started flooding TV, without a cent of payment to actors. A lot of them are pretty hungry now."

Roy's last feature was "Son of Paleface" with Bob Hope and Jane Russell in 1951. The cynics might argue that he hasn't gotten film offers because he lacked draw. The figures dispute that.

Last year, he and Dale Evans did a tour of 26 appearances and earned $460,000. They do seven specials a year in the Dinah Shore Sunday night time and the ratings have been consistently high.

How to Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

(© 1959: By The Chicago Tribune)

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

REGULARITY IN CHILDREN

Mothers are less inclined to worry about constipation in their children than did their grandparents. Regularity in bowel movements varies in different infants: one may have several daily, whereas another has one every two days. Each baby has his own rhythm.

The change in attitude toward the subject stems from a more rational approach to the problem. Constipation exists when several days elapse with no movement at all or the stools are so hard there is real difficulty or pain in moving the bowel. In addition, the condition may be expected at the onset of a physical disorder, a disease like a cold, or an emotional upset.

Constipation is not in itself a disease nor is it to be blamed for an upset stomach, fatigue, or headache. Modern mothers are more inclined to treat it with natural means rather than laxatives. Constipation in the breastfed is encountered rarely since human milk contains a laxative ingredient. Cow's milk may have a tendency along this line, if it is well digested. The fat and casein in the fluid make the stool firm.

In some instances the tot needs more carbohydrates. Occassionally the inclusion of a few teaspoons of malt sugar or the use of prune juice or pureed prunes or of applesauce will prove effective. Bending a baby's knees and pushing them gently upward over the abdomen stimulates a sluggish bowel.

Fruits and vegetables do wonders for older children. A large serving of a whole grain cereal does the same: as well as plenty of fresh air and out of door activity. A sick child may need more help, such as a small lukewarm enema, to promote elimination at this time.

Avoid rigid toilet training of toddlers. It is a major accomplishment to move the bowel at a specific time and place. A small child cannot be rushed: the process of elimination is a coordinated effort and the nerve control of this function rarely is complete before age 2 or 2½ years. If the child is not ready, force brings resentment and, in time, constipation.

Dr. Van Dellen will send a leaflet on constipation in children if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

CRAVING FOR CHOCOLATE

Mrs. J. O. writes: A 17 year old boy has craved chocolate since he was small. Does this mean he will grow up to crave alcohol?

REPLY

No. Alcohol, opium, and marijuana addicts crave these products because they want to escape from reality. This is not the case with those who crave certain foods such as chocolate, bananas, or starch.

MOON-FACED

W. T. writes: What would cause excessively puffy cheeks in a healthy 42 year old woman who is not overweight?

REPLY

This may be normal if other members of the family have the square jaws that produce a box-like appearance of the face. I assume this woman does not have an infection of the salivary glands such as mumps, and that she is not taking cortisone, which rounds out the face in a moonshaped contour. Since you ask about a woman, I assume a cud of chewing tobacco is not rounding out the cheeks.

ROBBING THE CRADLE

Mrs. M. writes: My husband can't keep his eyes off the neighborhood teen-age girls. We live in a small town and I'm afraid their mothers will notice what a fool he is making of himself. Can he have reached the dangerous age at 33?

REPLY

No. There is no harm in looking but the neighbors might talk if he gives the wolf call.

RADIO and TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry Belafonte made one of his occasional television appearances in a special Thursday night. It was a solid hour of American folk songs and dancing, with major but unspoken emphasis on the contribution of the Negro to both.

The songs ranged from religious to funny and Belafonte, lithe and graceful as a tiger, moved easily from mood to mood. He was assisted by a chorus of fine voices, a troupe of excellent dancers and a wonderful deep voiced singer called Odetta.

This was immediately followed on CBS by an original play by Davis Shaw called "The Tunnel." This reviewer, no Civil War buff, suspects the plot was based on a real military incident in 1864—and if it was not, the reputation of some Northern generals were kicked around.

The plot was primarily concerned with the digging of a tunnel by Union forces to a point under a Confederate position. Richard Boone played a tough, cynical colonel and Rip Torn, his younger idealistic subordinate.

The tunnel was dug, the position was blown up and the maneuver was a disaster because of high echelon politicking. The final scenes, however, were a grisly editorial against human slaughter. Some of the scenes in the crater after the explosion were a bit strong for a Playhouse 90 living room audience: screams of the wounded, the sight of maimed dead and dying. It was a harsh, taut man's show.

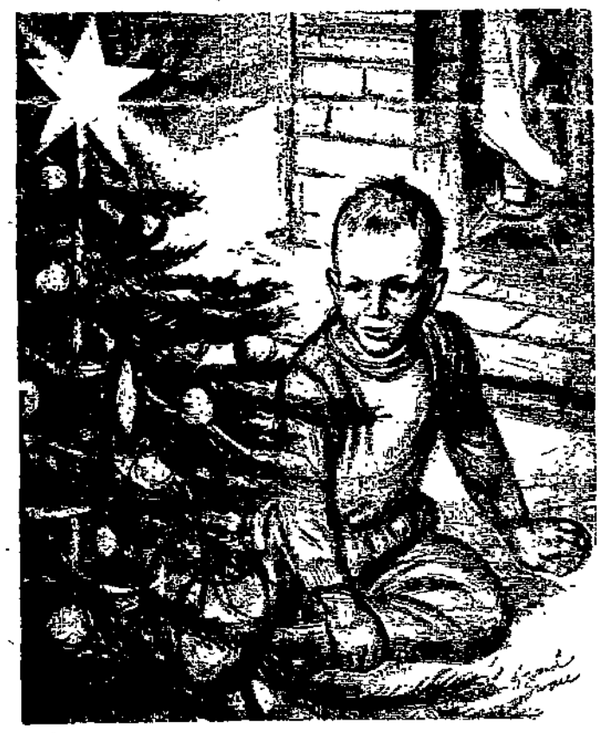
The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie



Faith is woven into the tradition of the Christmas tree.

Some authorities believe that the tree originated in medieval German plays when a Tree of Paradise was used to symbolize the Garden of Eden. Many believe that St. Boniface, the English missionary to Germany in the Eighth Century, offered the pagans a young fir, adorned in tribute to the Christ child, after he felled the sacred oak to the thunder god, Thor. He converted many pagans. There have been accounts that Martin Luther introduced the candle-lighted tree, to symbolize the starry heavens. It is thought that German settlers in Pennsylvania brought the tree to America. Prince Albert made it fashionable in England, when he and Queen Victoria celebrated their first Christmas tree in Windsor Castle in 1841.

Today large trees add warmth to community spirit, church trees nestle gifts to the underprivileged beneath their branches, and home trees, surrounded with gifts, reflect the beauty of nature, the glory of light and the joy of giving.

Christmas Music Festival Greeted by Large Audience

A full house greeted students of Warren High School music department in Beaty Junior High School auditorium last evening for the Festival of Christmas Music in which both choral and orchestral groups participated

Flanking the stage were gleaming Christmas trees, which combined with special lighting effects and colorful choir robes in providing a festive setting for the program

For the first time since the Christmas Carol Festival was inaugurated many years ago there was no audience participation in carol interludes

Opening the program Harry A Summers presented his orchestra in two groups of seasonal compositions, the string ensemble in a Mozart selection and a trumpet solo by Gail Watt

The beautiful Alfred Burt carols were heard as the first offering of the A Cappella Choir, Carroll A Fowler directing Rosanna Oberg was soloist for The Star Carol, with descant by Sally Buerkle and Elsie Rapp

In the Pohlmann "Bells of Christmas", Geraldine Lindberg was soloist and appeared with Judy Andree, Tom Pace, Rosanna Oberg, Carol Kurz and Patty Hubbard as a double trio

This group was joined by the second and third choirs, Choristers and Choraleers for the Christmas cantata which is traditionally a highlight of this holiday music festival. An orchestral background added much to effectiveness of the combined choir voices in Clokey's "Childe Jesus"

Also a tradition, the program was conducted with the familiar "Silent Night, Holy Night." For this, the combined choirs were supplemented by a humming accompaniment from the audience.

An informal reception for all the young musicians was held in the school cafeteria after the program.

matter of FACT

On a clear night only about 6,000 stars can be seen without a telescope. One-fourth of these stars are too far south to be visible in North America Of the stars that can be seen from any one place on earth, only one-half are visible at one time because the others are below the horizon. Haze near the horizon hides many others It would probably be impossible to count more than 1,000 stars at one time

MIRROR OF YOUR MIND

By JOSEPH WHITNEY

Do neurotics have a sense of humor?

Answer: Yes, their reaction to humor is often more spontaneous than that of rationally minded persons. The visual concepts of the latter tend to be orderly and realistic. They are not easily distracted and usually resent the intrusion of any anomalous or ridiculous angles. As a rule the neurotic does not have this handicap. He is full of conflicts and anxieties, and almost any ridiculous denouement releases his tensions and he responds with hearty laughter.

Is deafness an emotional problem?

Answer: Yes, it is for persons who try to hide their deafness, because they usually slip into a world of loneliness and frustration. Dr. Norton Canfield points out in "Hearing, A Handbook for Laymen" (Doubleday) that deafness is often accompanied by a strong reluctance on the part of those afflicted to have attention directed toward themselves. This is a significant emotional dilemma, for only when the deaf admit their need can they be helped.

Should you give in to a child's nagging?

Answer: Only if there are sound reasons for doing so; never just to shut him up. A parent who decides to change his position should make sure that the child understands the reason; and that he might have gained his wish more easily by some means other than whining and nagging. Of greater importance is the parent's attitude, which should reflect friendly cooperation. If giving-in is done grudgingly, the child will unconsciously harbor these same hostile feelings.

One of the main differences between expert bridge and "just good" bridge is that the expert is never in a hurry and always tries to explore major suit possibilities before barging into notrump.

At the Texas Turnpike tournament Emma Jean Hawes of Fort Worth had no problem with her first response to her partner's one heart opening. She responded one spade. From then on it was an easy matter to get to six spades.

The play was fairly easy also. Mrs. Hawes won the opening club lead and played two rounds of trump winning both tricks in dummy. The four - one trump break caused a slight pause for study. Then Emma Jean led a heart to her queen, ruffed a club, overtook dummy's last spade with her ace, drew trumps discarding a diamond from dummy, ran off dummy's hearts and conceded the last diamond.

South players who hurried matters by responding two notrump wound up with various results but none of them succeeded in making a slam.

Some watched their partners play various heart contracts for 11 tricks only. A couple played notrump and also was only able to make 11 tricks.

At one table the spade slam was reached with North playing the hand. East rudely opened a diamond and North was down one before he could get the lead.

TODAY'S WOMEN

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

You have to get out of New York City every so often to get acquainted with America.

Just taking a plane to Chicago, Denver or Los Angeles doesn't do the trick. This is the usual New Yorker's mode of travel. The idea is to get there as fast as possible, finish your business and get home the same day if possible. It can be done, but you don't see much of the country.

I've been renewing old acquaintance with the heart and backbone of America for the past two weeks, and I can recommend it to any transplanted New Yorker who may have become so bemused with the big city that he thinks of the United States as merely four hours flying time between Manhattan and Hollywood.

You toss a couple of suitcases in the car and start out—across the George Washington bridge onto the New Jersey Turnpike and the Pennsylvania Turnpike, headed west. The first thing that will impress you, if you haven't done this sort of thing for some years, is the abundance and luxury of the motels along every main highway. Stop anywhere, and have the last word in modern comfort, at half the price of a single room in a New York hotel.

The farther you get from New York, the greater the courtesy and friendliness you encounter—at filling stations, roadside diners and motels. Strike up a conversation on politics and you'll pretty well be able to forecast the outcome of the next elections.

Look at the vast new industries in the South, the stately homes, the modern cities. Go hunting wild turkey and quail. Eat a Southern meal of turnip greens, black-eyed peas and cornbread. Until you've sampled this fare, you haven't lived.

Head back east by the southern route—across Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama, up the Skyline Drive through the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

You'll come back to the desk in New York a better American, with a new realization of the breadth and strength and vast variety of your country.

National Forge Purchases Unit To Improve Forgings

A vacuum treatment unit capable of producing improved quality steel forgings has been purchased by National Forge Co. at Irvine. The Warren County industry is the first in the nation to buy the equipment, developed by Dormund-Horder Huttenunion, Germany's largest steel producer. The unit was purchased through Lectromelt Furnace Division of McGraw Edison Co.

The plant at Irvine specializes in production of carbon, alloy, and stainless steel forgings made from electric furnace steel. The plant melts, forges, heat treats and machines a variety of forged products, including crankshafts, rolls and pressure vessels.

Robert O. Wilder, president of the National Forge Co., said the equipment is scheduled for operation in mid-1960. It will be the first Dormund-Horder unit capable of treating steel heats in the ten to 60-ton range.

Development of the new process was started in 1953 to reduce oxygen, hydrogen and nitrogen content in steel, to produce cleaner forgings. Operation of the unit forces successive portions of liquid steel into a vacuum vessel by atmospheric pressure. After degassing, each portion leaves the vessel with considerable kenetic energy, a National Forge news release said. It mixes completely with the steel in the ladle.

The process makes it possible to control final chemistry with great accuracy in addition to effective gas removal and thorough mixing. The process makes it possible to add precise quantities of alloys under vacuum from bins mounted on top of the vessel.

National Forge expects the general improvement in cleanliness and reduction of gas content to eliminate hydrogen flaking in forgings, reduction of heat treatment required for many grades of steel and improvement of mechanical properties.

Railroads Will Appeal $852,074 Damage Suit

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An $852,074 damage suit against 24 eastern railroads will be appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, one of the lines involved, announced the move Thursday after the U.S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the verdict.

By a 2-1 decision, the court upheld an opinion by U.S. District Judge Thomas J. Clary who ruled in favor of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Assn. on July 22, 1958.

The truckers charged the 24 railroads and Carl Byoir and Associates, a New York public relations firm, with conspiracy in the restraint of trade.

Religion in the News

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Protestant ministers report an increase in religious freedom in Cuba since the Caribbean isle swapped Dictator Batista for Revolutionary Castro.

The trio, the Revs. Clair Hutchins of Colonia, N.J.; Heman Sweet of Wallingford, Conn.; and Dr. Frank Stranges of New York, were in Cuba preparing for an evangelism campaign next winter.

"We were actually given a diplomatic reception by the Cuban government," says Hutchins.

"Just about everyone we talked to agreed that Fidel Castro observes the religious freedom clause in the constitution much better than Batista."

The campaign, sponsored by World Harvest Evangelism, Inc., is scheduled to get under way next Jan. 31. It is planned to last from four to six weeks in Havana.

MORGANTOWN, Ky.—"I'm just a country preacher who wanted to be a lawyer or politician," says Dr. Walter O. Parr.

Dr. Parr, who has in his charge three rural Presbyterian churches in western Kentucky, did take a fling at politics 15 years ago. He ran for Congress in Kentucky—and lost.

Now 59, he has not only preached rural development, but brought in agricultural experts for practical advise to his congregations.

Perhaps his biggest project has been organizing private foreign aid. In recent years he has loaded eight freighters with supplies for the needy overseas.

Korea is his special interest. In 1952, while a minister in Texas, he saw his Marine son off to war with advice about "looking to the future."

Sgt. Walter O. Parr Jr., replied bitterly: "In a world like this, what's a young man to look forward to?"

After the farewell, Dr. Parr made a silent vow.

"If my son returns," he told himself, "I will load a ship like that troopship and sent it to Korea with things of peace and goodwill."

The son returned. The vow was kept.

Dr. Parr organized the Texas Friendship Committee from his office at Fort Worth.

The Texas Friendship, loaded with donated farm animals, tools and food left for Korea in 1955. With tears in his eyes, Korean President Syngman Rhee personally thanked Dr. Parr, who had gone along on the ship.

A year later a 4-H Friendship sailed for Korea, and the trend was established.

Layne Calls New Steeler Contract "Good for Life"

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Quarterback Bobby Layne says his new two-year contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers is as good as a lifetime pact in that he hopes to wind up his National Football League career with the Steelers.

"Pittsburgh is my last stop. I hope to play here at least three or four more seasons," Layne said Thursday after signing the contract. Terms of the agreement were not announced.

The 32-year-old passer had said previously that he would quit football when Steeler coach Buddy Parker desired him to. Layne came to Pittsburgh in a trade with the Detroit Lions shortly after the opening of the 1958 season.

Layne will wind up his 12th NFL season against the Chicago Cardinals here Sunday.

Marciano Said To Be Planning Workouts

DALLAS (AP) — Rocky Marciano's former trainer said Thursday he would meet the former heavyweight champion in Florida next week to help him work out.

Charlie Goldman, 71, said "I got a call from Rocky just a week ago. He said he had a friend who owns a gym down in Fort Lauderdale and would I come down for a few days. Said he'd like to do a little work. I'm going to meet him in Miami right after this fight."

Goldman came to Dallas Thursday with Garvin Sawyer, a heavyweight who meets Donnie Fleeman in a 10-round bout here Monday night.

Vega and other top-flight gymnasts from coast to coast will perform at a benefit exhibition Saturday in Phoenix, Ariz.

From there, Vega will travel to Reno, Nev., for a second performance on Dec. 19, and will then head for Florida where he will compete in the pre-trials for a berth on Uncle Sam's 1960 Olympic team. Vega was a member of the 1956 Olympic team.

Baltimore Colts Arrive in L. A. For Big Contest

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today, determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams Saturday and escape any possible playoff for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

The defending Colts are picked by as much as 12 points to inflict the 10th defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

The struggle, with sohe 8 ,008 expected in Memorial Coliseum, will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, with this area for 150 miles blacked out.

The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a three-way tie for the division crown.

The Colts take the field with their usual troops.

Ohio State Wins Fifth in Row By Beating St. Louis

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Big Jerry Lucas wasn't enough to make Ohio State look tough, Larry Siegfried now has come along to keep the Bucks unbeaten in major college basketball.

With the 6-8 Lucas scoring 30 points under the boards and Siegfried, 6-4, poppin' in 22 points from the outside, Ohio State won its fifth in a row Thursday night, spilling previously unbeaten St. Louis 81-74 on the Billikens' home court.

While Lucas dueled with the Bills' 6-10 Bob Nordmann under the boards, Siegfried, who had been averaging less than 13 points a game, hit six of seven shots as the Bucks built a six-point bulge at the half, 44-38. The Billikens, who had overcome 13 and 4-point deficits while defeating St. John's (NY) and Kansas State in their last two games, three times led by one before Nordmann fouled out midway in the second half.

Legal Hassle May Free Johansson From His Agent

NEW YORK (AP) — Politician-promoter Vincent J. Velella's legal troubles may make heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson a free agent.

At least that was the viewpoint of Johansson's advisor, Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist, when he learned Velella had been indicted by a New York county grand jury on a two-count charge of perjury.

Ahlquist today insisted Johansson is as eager as ever to give ex-champion Floyd Patterson a return fight.

There are at least two reasons for Ingo's desire to take on Patterson again. The unbeaten Swede dropped Pat seven times and stopped him in the third round at Yankee Stadium last June 26. Ingo thinks Floyd will be just as easy the second time. And secondly, the Swedes believe they can make the most money with Patterson.

If Velella and his group are bypassed, there are several other organizations anxious to sign Ingo. These include Joe Tepper's New York firm, which wants to stage a Johansson-Patterson return at Yankee Stadium in June, and the two rival British promoters, Jack Solomons, now at Goteborg for talks, and Harry Levene.

Tight Competition Marks Finish Of Chicago Tourney

CHICAGO (AP)—Today is payoff day in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament and it looks like a dog fight is shaping up for the finish of the nine-day $30,000 ten-pin marathon.

As the 16 men finalists start firing their final 16 games of the 64 - game head-to-head competition, three of the country's top bowlers were closely bunched at the top.

Leading after 48 games was Bill Bolembiewski, of the A. B. C. champions from Detroit. He held onto the top spot he had taken Wednesday although he lost four of his last eight games.

His lead was slim and his closest competitors were seasoned pros, Ray Bluth and Don Carter, both of St. Louis.

Golembiewski's Petersen point total was 240.31 on the strength of 30½ games won and a total pinfall of 10,506. Bluth A.B.C. masters champion, had 239.33 points with his 30 wins and 10,483 pinfall.

AP Sports Writer Favors Change In College Football

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The men who watch the game from the press box think college football should copy the professionals.

Colleges should put the goal posts on the goal-line and return to the free-substitution rule, these observers said emphatically in The Associated Press' post-season football poll.

Queries about current and proposed rules, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters were almost solid in their dissatisfaction with college standards.

Of the 166 who expressed opinions in the poll tabulated today, 12 said colleges should go back to the two-platoon system and unlimited substitutions.

Only slightly fewer—108—said the goal posts should be put on the goal line, as the pros have it.

Under present rules, a player may reenter the game only once during a quarter but there is provision for specialists to be shuttled in and out when the clock is stopped under a so-called "wild card rule," tried for the first time this year.

Asked about the effectiveness of the "wild card" rule, the voters replied—10 to 1—that they were in favor of it if limited substitution could not be achieved. A few said they noted little difference.

Trainer Knew He Had Champ With Joe Brown

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—When the all-time record of remarkable ringmen finally is inscribed, the name of Joe Brown certainly will be high on the list.

The lightweight champion is an amazing ancient, by ring standards. Variously known as Old Bones and Rocking Chair, he admits to 34, which probably is as near his real age as Archie Moore's self-proclaimed 42

WITH A CAREER that had as many ups and downs as a yo-yo behind him and as sad and discouraged as a lunchwagon salad, Joe bounced back from obscurity to take the lightweight championship at an age when most boxers are ready for the fireside, a berth behind the pump in a saloon or a sinecure with a boxing commission.

Since winning the title from Wallace (Bud) Smith in August, 1956, Brown has defended it eight times, more than any other lightweight champion except the extraordinary Benny Leonard.

And he felt so frisky after cutting up and stopping British and British Empire lightweight champion Dave Charnley in Houston the other night that he asked his manager, Lou Viscusi, to get him another fight before Christmas.

"I trained six weeks for Charnley," said Old Bones, "and I didn't get hurt. I don't want to let all that work go for nothin'."

The saga of Brown, the champion and classic fighter, really began the night of Feb. 6, 1956, in New Orleans. For the first time he had in his corner Bill Gore, one of the superior teachers, trainers and seconds who handled Willie Pep and numerous others and dates back to pre-World War I days.

ACROSS THE RING was Arthur Persley, a formidable lightweight who had taken a 12-round decision from Brown six months before. Brown was knocked down in the second round, but got up to batter Persley into a ninth-round knockout.

"That was the best lightweight fight I've seen in years," Gore told Viscusi. "You had better start moving this guy."

Six months later Brown was champion by virtue of a 15-round decision he hammered out over Smith even though handicapped by a broken right hand.

"BROWN WAS IN HIS 30s and had been boxing professionally 10 years when we got him," recalls Gore, "so he was a do-it-yourself kit. He knew everything there is to know about boxing. All the pieces were there, but the fellow had been kicked around which accounts for his spotty earlier record. All we had to do was put the pieces together, oil them a little with strict training and we had a well-nigh perfect boxing machine.

"He's the best two-fisted lightweight I've even seen," says Gore. "Best of all, he's a classic fighter. He has an erect stance, slips and blocks with a minimum of effort and knows how to move out of trouble."

Like Archie Moore, Joe Brown should be kept on display as a working model for all the untutored fighters around today.

Dragon Heavies Explode to Beat Corry Beavers 35-25 in Grappling Opener

Matmen Feel Early Injuries

A sluggish Warren High wrestling team, sparked by the loss of an expected winner and a 20-12 Corry lead, spurted into a winning session in the heavier weight divisions to subdue the Beavers 35-25 at Corry last evening.

Hampered in first half of the meet by inexperience and injuries, the Dragons will feel the effects against Titusville next week.

Tom Sleeman, 127-pounder, was treated at Corry Memorial Hospital for a deep cut over the right eye which required four stitches. Grappling coach Hal Miller said last night that Sleeman is a doubtful starter for the Blue and Whites, "at least until the first of the year." Corry won the match by default.

Larry Campbell sustained a recurrence of a right shoulder injury which hampered his competition most of the 1958-59 season. Campbell is a doubtful starter next week Miller reported. Causing considerable pain, the referee stopped the match until Campbell's shoulder could be taped. He pinned his man in 95 seconds of the third period.

John Colvin started the ball rolling after his brother Roger "Slug" lost his 138-pound match. Determined to pull the Dragons from an 8-point deficit, John, "Duddy", scored the fastest first period pin of the night for Warren, in 145-pound class. Ron Seder, 145, followed with a pin and John Mead came through in 165 pound competition with a first period pin. Jim Wick, unlimited, pinned his man in the first period also to sew up the Warren win.

Dragons nailed six Black and Orange matmen, won one and drew one. Beavers won two by pins, decisioned two Millermen and shared in the 133-pound division draw.

Last night's win extended Warren's winning streak to 13 matches. The victory string started with the final match of the 1957-58 season, through last year's undefeated schedule and into the start of the current mat card.

It was Miller's 24th wrestling victory out of 28 meets in his four years as varsity coach at Warren High.

"We're young but the boys will learn as the season goes on," Miller said after the near-loss last night. "We'll try to iron out the boys' mistakes."

The coach said "a boy sometimes learns as much when he loses as he does when he wins. My objective in wrestling is not to win but to have the boy develop both physically and mentally."

His first match as a wrestler, 95-pounder Tony Ross was pinned in 38 seconds the first period by Fralick. Fred Bibeau, also a newcomer to WHS mats, was decisioned by Sauko. Rich Cummings pinned Corry's Bob Malek 69 seconds, second period.

Stutzman, who is expected to cause trouble in the 120 pound bracket in Section II wrestling circles, was pinned by veteran Larry Campbell in third period, 95 seconds. Patterson won by default over injured Tom Sleeman. Bob Long drew Griswold in 133-weight class.

Roger Colvin lost to the Beaver's F. Malek. The Dragons were then trailing 20-12. "Duddy" Colvin built the fire under the locals when he pinned Buel in 67 seconds of the initial period. Seder disposed of R. Mitchell for another Warren pin in second period, 10 seconds. Patterson was pinned by Mead in first period, 91 seconds.

Newcomer Everett Haight made what other members of the Dragon team considered a classy debut on the mat. The Warren High senior provided plenty of trouble for one of the Section's top wrestlers, Bob Lindsey, in first period. Haight, 15 pounds under the 180-pounder he was contesting, lost by a second period pin.

Wick pinned Fenstermacher late in the opening period in the new unlimited weight class to start his wrestling career at WHS. Wick is also a senior.

Dragons go to Titusville next Thursday. The boys are looking for revenge over the Rockets who smashed the Blue and White's victory season last year in the Sectional meet.

Summary:

95—Fralick (C) pinned Tony Ross (W) :38 first—6-0.

103—Sauko (C) decisioned Fred Bibeau—3-0.

Erie Academy Faces Warren Cagers at Beaty This Evening

Veteran-strong Erie Academy cagers come to Beaty gym tonight to meet Warren's Basketball Dragons at 8:15.

Blue and White coach Joe Massa said he is looking for a "Tough ball game tonight." Joe cited the fact that Academy is strong with veterans, their speed, coupled with "pretty fair height under the boards," will be troublemakers for the Dragons.

Academy is 2-2 for the season, Warren 1-2.

Warren's sophomores will play YMCA City League Unknown quintet for the prelim at 6:45 p. m. The Unknowns are led by Larry Lawton, Warren High student. The City boys, in two games, are winless.

Coach Massa has filled four starting positions. Left in doubt is a guard slot, being contested for this morning by Dick White and Pete Ostergard.

Jim Redding will start at center, John Barr and Ross Kremer at the forward positions and Doug Lind as guard Massa, reported.

Erie coach Jack Korma is a "veteran's veteran" Massa said, the Gem City mentor has been basketball coach for 25 years the Dragon head said.

Chamberlain Is Stealing Show From Bob Pettit

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Remember Bob Pettit, the St. Louis Hawks' star who broke a National Basketball Assn. record last year with 2 105 points for a single season?

You don't hear as much about the former Louisiana State All-America now as you did a year ago.

St. Louis Coach Ed Macauley said today Pettit is scoring at about the same pace as last year but that 7-1 rookie Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors is stealing the spotlight because he is new and can't be stopped in the scoring race

Chamberlain was in good form again Thursday night in spite of an injured left foot. He dumped in 34 points to lead the Warriors to a 131-112 victory over Cincinnati in the second game of a Convention Hall doubleheader.

The Stilt's output boosted his league leading total to 788 points in 22 games—seven more than Cincinnati's Jack Twyman, who led the Royals in scoring Thursday night with 29.

In the opener, Cliff Hagan hit for 31 points and Pettit 24 to hoist the Hawks to a 129-111 triumph over Detroit and increase their lead to 3½ games in the Western division. Archie Dees scored 26 points for the Pistons. Bailey Howell had 22.

End of Trail For Colorful Boxing Great

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, whose flailing fists carried him from a bootblack's box on the sidewalks of New Orleans to boxing's hall of fame, no longer will hold court on his beloved Broadway.

The great little gladiator who won the featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight was found dead Thursday in a $21-a-week midtown hotel room. Medical authorities said the 51 - year old scrapper apparently had died of natural causes two days ago.

When Canzoneri failed to show for two days at the Broadway restaurant which paid him for the use of his name, a friend, Norman Schwartz, checked the hotel. The ex-champion was found dead lying across a bed, clad in his underwear.

The word quickly spread up and down Broadway.

In front of the restaurant, where Tony held court each night for those who remembered back to the exciting days in the 1920s and early 1930s, many of his friends clustered. They talked in almost hush tones of the man with the big smile who won 140 fights, lost 24 and drew in 11 and then after his retirement in 1939, joined comedian Joey Adams in a successful night club act.

Purses were not always big in his days, but Canzoneri earned more than $500,000 with his fists. He met all the top fighters of his time—Johnny Dundee, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate, Bud Taylor, Lou Ambers, Bushy Grham, Joe Sabgor, Sammy Mandell, Al Singer, Jackie (Kid) Berg, Stan Loayza, Billy Petrolla, Wes Ramey, Baby Arizmendi, Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin.

Busy Bee Tops Blueberry in Hometown City Battle; Sheffield Downs Unknowns

Blueberry Hill lost their second straight game in YMCA City cage action last night, bowing to fellow-Warrenites Busy Bee five 62-50 on the Y court.

Sheffield beat the Unknowns in the second City game, 90-74. Sheffield led at the half by three narrow points.

Monday in the Y, Sheffield will play Busy Bee quintet. Unknowns and Blueberry, both winless in two games, will compete at 8 p. m. Sheffield and Busy Bee have won both games of the young schedule.

League officials said the "battle to determine the stronger of the two Warren entries in City loop" was a hard fought game for the "laurels." Nick Creola of the league said the game was "defensive all the way, mingled with good shooting and close board work."

Blueberry was down 29-22 at intermission. Their shooting was topped by Ben Obinger with 20 points. Ed Lindberg led Busy Bee with 16. Dick Koebley and Barry Drexler each sank 12.

Boston's diamond bonus baby, Bud Rowland, was "really hot" for the Unknowns who fell short of the Sheffield 42-39 half time bulge. Rowland sizzled the cords for 31 points. Teammate Jeff Homan bombed in 23 markers. For the winners, Jerry Sadler, Ron Labesky and Rodney Vanshaw of Sheffield High School's undefeated 1955-56 cage team, were top scorers with 25, 23 and 14 points respectively.

Budget Considered By Youngsville Council

YOUNGSVILLE—Informal discussion of the 1960 budget, proposed projects, purchases, and construction of water and sewer lines featured the December meeting of Borough Council. Additional work will be done on the budget before action is taken at a special meeting later this month.

Other matters given attention included future connection of the Rouse Home with the sanitary sewer system; parking at and near several business establishments.

It was also decided a program of permanent grades should be started on all streets not now so designated, in order that borough-wide sidegalk construction might be planned for properties needed new or reconstructed sidewalks.

Approval was current bills in the amount of $4,705.80. Police reports showed two arrests for disorderly conduct, 11 calls, five complaints, two dogs disposed of and 29 parking violations. Meter collections amounted to $318.92.

The montnly session opened with invocation by the Rev. Theodore Lundquist, of Saron Lutheran Church, with Burgess Lewis Crippen and all council members in attendance.

reviewing the case, said Dohollow's previous record warranted a prison sentence under ordinary circumstances.

The judge also had suggested Dohollow be committed to Warren or Danville state hospitals. The AA director replied that there is no known cure for alcoholism. According to testimony, the defendant had been in Warren County to hunt over a two-day period in October. He is married and has three children. Testimony said that on one occasion in Pittsburgh he stole a cake in a store but ignored a purse with $300 next to it.

The court heard a number of other cases this morning. A new report of the proceedings will appear in the Monday edition of the Times-Mirror.

LAWYERS LET FINCH DEFENDANTS SPEAK — For the first time since they went on trial two days ago, Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff were permitted by their attorneys Thursday, to look at and talk to each other. This was the scene that resulted with attorney Rexford Egan leaning back so the two defendants could chat. They are accused of slaying Finch's wife, Barbara. aspirations that unite Indians and Americans under one banner—the banner of human dignity," the President declared.

Eisenhower pledged that America will continue cooperating with India to achieve a world free of hunger in which families can live full, prosperous lives and in which friendship replaces fear and suspicion.

"We see in modern agriculture the most effective instrument for a better life among all men," he said.

Eisenhower told the Indians that he, himself, plans to be a farmer after retiring from "my present form of occupation."

The American visitor, still loudly and enthusiastically extolled by the Indians, also set forth his views at this midway point of his New Delhi visit in an informal talk to U.S. Embassy personnel and a speech before 5,500 students faculty members and guests at Delhi University.

Eisenhower's packed schedule ranged from inspection of the new 2½-million-dollar U.S. Embassy in the diplomatic quarter on New Delhi's south side to opening of the 2½-million-dollar American exhibition at the World Agriculture Fair.

Colorful street crowds cheered the President on his rounds. But the crowds were orderly in contrast to the wild reception Eisenhower received on his arrival here Wednesday. The motorcade routes also appeared to have been reinforced with police and other se-

Accepting an honorary law degree at Delhi University, the President said nations must accept the rule of international law to provide a sound basis for peace.

He suggested, however, that international law needs to be brought up to date with an infusion of the finest traditions of all great legal systems of the world. He said universities could be of tremendous help.

This was at once a slap at the Soviet Union and a compliment to the Indians. The Soviets have persistently declined to submit to arbitration by the International Court of Justice, but India recently accepted with only a few reservations the principle of the court's jurisdiction — and Eisenhower praised India for this.

"The time has come for mankind to make the rule of law in international affairs as normal as it is now in domestic affairs," he said. "Of course, the structure of such law must be patiently built, stone by stone."

One stone is the existing International Court of Justice at the Hague, he said.

"Another major stone in the structure of international rule by law must be a body of international law adapted to the changing needs of today's world," he said. "The law is not a concrete pillbox in which the status quo is armed and entrenched.

"We will all have to remind ourselves that under this system of law one will sometimes lose as well as win. But nations can endure and accept an adverse decision rendered by competent and impartial tribunals. If armed conflict is avoided, everyone wins."

Eisenhower recommended the stepped-up student exchanges with the observation that "all of us recognize the ease with which young people absorb new ideas and new insight."

Eisenhower wore a scarlet and purple robe for the convocation at the 30-year-old university of 10,000 students near the old walled city of Delhi. Only two other Americans have been awarded honorary degrees from the institution—Helen Keller and Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Radiating good spirits and looking fit, he entered the open arena at the end of an academic procession to the rhythmic clapping of the audience.

School authorities said advantages would include increased state aid for Farmington and Pine Grove townships. Sugar Grove Borough and Sugar Grove Township already are in union.

Authorities said the state prefers union to jointures as it is a more permanent organization and that a union would link the districts involved more closely.

In connection with the proposal for complete union, the board was informed a census will be needed to determine the class of the school districts. If they are Third Class the number of directors would be increased.

duced by Senators Berger, Barr and Scott, the heirs of any employee of the Commonwealth who died before completing 25 years of service or attaining the age of 60 would receive only the employee's own contributions to the retirement fund, plus interest.

Under Senate Bill 971, the law is changed to provide that if an employee dies after ten years of service, his heirs will receive his contributions plus interest, and, a proportional part of the State's share of the pension.

This means that any employee with between 10 and 25 years of service has been granted the equivalent of a paid up insurance policy for at least the value of his retirement contributions plus interest. The bill became effective as of December 1, 1959.

Another bill, House Bill 647, which provides cumulative sick leave and cumulative vacations for all Commonwealth workers, has passed both houses and is before Governor Lawrence for signature. This bill, also sponsored by the Independent Association of PLCB Employees and introduced by Representatives Jeanette F. Riebman and Stuart Helm, will place Pennsylvania in line with all other 49 states and the Federal government insofar as sick leave and vacation policy are concerned.

Under the new setup, sick leave, not used by the employee, may be accumulated up to 90 days, and vacation, not used, may be accumulated up to 30 days. Formerly, either sick leave or vacation not used in any current year, became lost to the employee. The maximum was 15 days sick leave and 15 days vacation annually.

a Havana judge and charge him with having been Young's accomplice, on the ground he tried to help a fugitive.

"I was just after a story," Buchanan told a reporter, adding that he had never seen Young before Wednesday night.

He said he really did not believe the man he was interviewing was Young until Thursday Thursday morning. When he was convinced, he contacted the U.S. Embassy and planned to go there but took a bandage to Young's room and was nabbed, he said.

Buchanan said he had packed and made reservations for home when arrested.

Young, a 38-year-old pilot-adventurer from Miami, was sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday in Pinar del Rio for conspiring against Castro's government. He escaped Wednesday and made his way to Havana, but his freedom lasted less than 48 hours.

Cuban agents claimed Buchanan was bringing bandages to Young, who had hurt his leg in the escape.

Two armed agents picked up Aitken after midnight at the Havana office of the New York Times, where he was talking with the Times correspondent, Mrs. Ruby Hart Phillips, and Edward Scott, a British national and correspondent for the National Broadcasting Co.

Multi-Coin Pinball Machines Believed To Be Few in County

Multiple-coin pinball machines, ruled as illegal gambling devices by the State Supreme Court on Nov. 24, apparently will not present too much of a problem in Warren County, according to state police.

The state police were notified of the official ruling last week. It becomes effective on Jan. 1, 1960.

Warren County has had a number of multi-coin pinball machines in recent years, but at present the number is believed small, if any, said the state police.

George Cottillion, who operates an amusement machine business with a brother, Gus, at 223 Pennsylvania Ave. west, said they had the multi-coin machines about three years ago, but that they did not prove popular with the public. At present, he said, they are not handling the multi-coin machines.

On Dec. 7 a petition was filed with the Sttae Supreme Court, requesting that new arguments on its Nov. 24 decision be heard. The petition was filed by Attorney Anthony Cavalcante of Uniontown. There are an estimated 20,000 multi-coin machines in the state.

Machines ruled illegal are those in which more than one coin can be inserted to increase a player's odds.

Discount House Seeks Stay in Blue Law Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Guys from Harrison, Inc., an Allentown, Pa., discount house, has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to stay enforcement of an amendment to a Pennsylvania Blue Law prohibiting sales of certain items on Sundays.

But there was no indication when Justice Brennan might act. He could submit the petition to the full court at a closed conference late today. He is expected, however, to consider only the papers filed and not grant a hearing.

Name-Brand Medicines Being Investigated

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators sought to learn today how smaller firms fare in competition with the big producers of name-brand prescription medicines.

The Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee called Seymour Blackman, secretary-treasurer of the Premo Pharmaceutical Laboratories, Inc., of South Hackensack, N. J., to tell about it.

Rand Dixon, subcommittee counsel, described Premo as "not small, not large, but successful."

He said he plans to explore with Blackman the effect on smaller competitors when the larger companies launch big advertising and promotional campaigns in behalf of their own patented brands, and whether the bigger firms' handling of new medicine patents has any restrictive results.
